HEROES TO REMEMBER

This monument is dedicated to United States Air Force recruiters who have served, who are serving, and who will serve.

Since March 1954, Air Force recruiters applied their individual strengths and special talents willingly and passionately in an intense goal-directed environment. Despite numerous obstacles, they marched on steadfastly, accepting every challenge as an opportunity. An Air Force recruiter's presence through the years in our nation's high schools and communities became synonymous with excellence, innovation, honor, integrity and service to our country.

Their Aim High legacy lives on.

REMEMBERING AIR FORCE RECRUITING HEROES

The USAF Recruiting Monument to honor all Recruiters - past, present and future.

The monument will be constructed and located on the Lackland Parade Field on Lackland Air force Base, Texas. This effort is jointly sponsored by the Air Force Recruiting Service and the Air Force Recruiting Alumni Association.

We need your support.

Every American Airman had a Recruiter...

Honor them, help build a monument.
